

Description	crayon portrait of Henry David Thoreau as a young man
Date	1854
Source	www.walden.org/Institute/Images/VII.%20Rowse.jpg
Author	Samuel Worcester Rouse
Permission	public domain
Description	Portrait by Benjamin D. Maxham (daguerreotype), black and white of Henry David Thoreau in June 1856. The writer-collar post a beard and is dressed in a black frock coat, a white shirt and a black bow tie.
Date	1856
Source	http://eserver.org/thoreau/images.html
Author	Slightly edited (contrast, brightness) Benjamin D. Maxham
Permission	Since Thoreau died in 1862, this photography necessarily is in the public domain
Description	Henry David Thoreau, photograph taken in August 1861 and published circa 1879, head-and-shoulders portrait, facing slightly right. Edited image from Library of Congress item LC-USZ61-361 (b&w film copy neg.).
Date	Photographed August 1861, Published c. 1879
Source	Transferred from en.wikipedia
Author	George F. Parlow (d. 1926)
Permission	PD-US; PD-OLD-70.

Henry David Thoreau is the author of Walden.